KEYTESVILLE, MISSOUR!, FRIDAY, FEB. 23, 1894.

NUMBER 5.

A Hung Jury.

That was the result of the case of the state against Walter Blakley. who was tried by jury in 'Squire A. F. Wood's court, at Mendon, last Saturday.

The defendant was charged with assaulting a ministerial officer, H. C. Atterbury, Mendon's marshal, while he had Joseph Sterling under arrest on the 30th of January last for violation of a town ordinance pertaining to running a pool hall.

There was no evidence to show that Blakley knew that Mr. Atterbury had Sterling under arrest the time of the quarrel and fistic encounter between the marchal and Blakley, and for that reason it was questionable, with the jury, as to whether the defendant was guilty as charged in the information. Four of the jury stood for conviction and two for acquittal.

The state is represented by Assisttesville, while Attorney Richards, of be admired. Hurrah for Dewey! Mendon, is of counsel for defendant.

HERE'S YOUR OPPORTUNITY.

We call the attention of our readers to the remarkable clubbing offer in this issue, by which we can send this paper and the Sunday Post-Dispatch to the same address for one year for the low sum of $2. This is the best offer ever made by a country weekly newspaper to its readers. In addition to this, every subscriber to the Couries and the Sunday Post-Dispatch, under this arrangement, can secure the beautiful world's fair photographs, gems of art, alone worth more than the combined cost of the two newspapers.

These offers are made by our arrangement with the St. Louis Post-Dispatch, and only those who pay up back dues and renew, or subscribe for the Courier are entitled to them.

H. C. HYDE, Keytesville, Mo. balf.

Dr. G. M. Dewey, of this place, received official notice from Pension Commissioner Wm. Lochren. that his (the doctor's) services would be dispensed with as one of the board of Chariton county pension medical examiners on and after Feb. 23rd (to-day). Dr. Cunningham, of Brunswick, another member of the board. has also received the same kind of a notice as Dr. Dewey. Their places have been filled by Drs. J. F. Welch, of Salisbury, and G. W. Lawhorn, of Forest Green, who were recommended by Congressman U. S. Hall. Dr. Dewey says that his disappointment at being deprived of his position on the board of pension examiners is somewhat appeased by the fact that the office doesn't pay, and that he only made two "measly" dollars out of it during the month of January. Then. too, the doctor says he expects to be elected coroner of The case will come for trial again this county next November, and that he doesn't want to hold all of offices in the county. ant Prosecuting Attorney L. Five Dollars To One.

The Brunswicker in speaking of Miss Costello's recitation concert a that place on Monday night of last week, says there were only 40 or 50 persons present, but that the ladies who had the entertainment incharge cleared $3.50 after paying all expenses, but that at Keytesville where the young men bad guaranteed Miss Costello $25 besides paying the hall rent, she was telephoned "This illustrates the difference between a dead town and a live town, bright women and timid young men." And yet if Keytesville has not spent $5 to Brunswick's $1 in improvements during the past two years, the editor of the Brunswicker may draw on us for a clean shirt and a paper collar. As to our "timid young men" they are amply able to take care of themselves and we offer no defense in their behalf.

The Tomb.

GLENN:-Died, at her home, near Eccles, on the morning of the 13th of Feb. 1894, of congestion of the stomach and heart failure, Mrs. Tabitha P. Glenn in the 68th year of her age. She was the beloved wife of Robert V. Glenn. Mrs. Glenn's maiden name was Miss Tibatha P. Elvira P. Clarkson. She was born day of Nov. 1826. Her parents 500. moved to Kentucky in the fall of 1832, settling in Mead county, that state, near Big Springe. Several years later she accompanied her parents to Missouri, who located in Lafayette county, near Lexington, She was married at the home of her uncle, Howell Lewis, in Greenton Valley, that county, to Benjain the city of Brunswick, where her $1,500. husband was a dealer in tobacco for three years. Closing out that business be bought a large tract of land containing 500 acres, six miles northeast of Keytesville. This happy union was blessed with thirteen children, twelve of whom lived to be grown. But, alas! on the night of the 1st of Nov., 1865, the kind husband and affectionate father was called from earth to heaven. Mr. and Mrs. Bell early became very zealous christians, both of whom were converted at a Methodist camp-meeting, at Locke campground in the fall of 1847. Perhaps o man in North Missouri was better known to the ministers of the M. E. Church, South. His hospitable home was a favorite and welcome resort for all. His good wife vied with him in entertaining their guests. Mr. Bell was an active worker in all revival meetings. He was a man of fine attainments, being a graduate of Yale college. On the 23rd day of December, 1873, Mrs. Bell was married to Robert V.Glenn, who was raised in her native county, Campbell county, Va., who by economy and industry assisted her much in rear- $1. ing the younger part of her family. She leaves five sons and three daughters, eighteen grandchildren and a devoted husband to mourn the irreparable loss of this good woman. Mrs. Glenn was a sister of Mrs. A. C. ous other relatives.

Captured A Jack Rabbit.

Four hounds and a feist belonging to Cliff Harris, col., jumped up a Jack Rabbit on the farm of J. J. McFarland, four miles southeast of Keytesville, on Thurday of last week. Owing to the deep snow neither the hounds nor his sack rabbitship could make much of n showing in a race, but the small dog got about more actively and soon succeeded in capturing Mr. Rabbit in a snow drift. It is not known how the rabbit got here or where it came from, but it bears the ear marks of being a Kansas Populist.

The fleet-footed animal weighed 6 pounds. C. w. Price has stuffed the skin, and will retain it as a curiosity at his home, three miles south of Keytesville.

The Brunswick Tobacco works have pur chased 200,000 pounds of tobacco this sea-son. About 100,000 pounds of this amount was bought for Bethel & co., of Louisville, Ky., and 100,000 pounds on speculation. They also expect to buy considerable more for manufacturing purposes in conducting their tobacco manufacturing business, an en-terprise in which they are succeeding most terprise in which they are succeeding mos admirably. Their tobacco purchases con sist of both old style and burley. For the former they have paid from $1.75 to $3.50 per hundred pounds, and from $4.25 to $5.50 per hundred for the latter variety.
